

Below 1× favors KKT. Ratios are paired before hierarchical medians; graph ranges are descriptive, not confidence intervals.
All manifest cases retained. Same production algorithms and common input/output boundary.