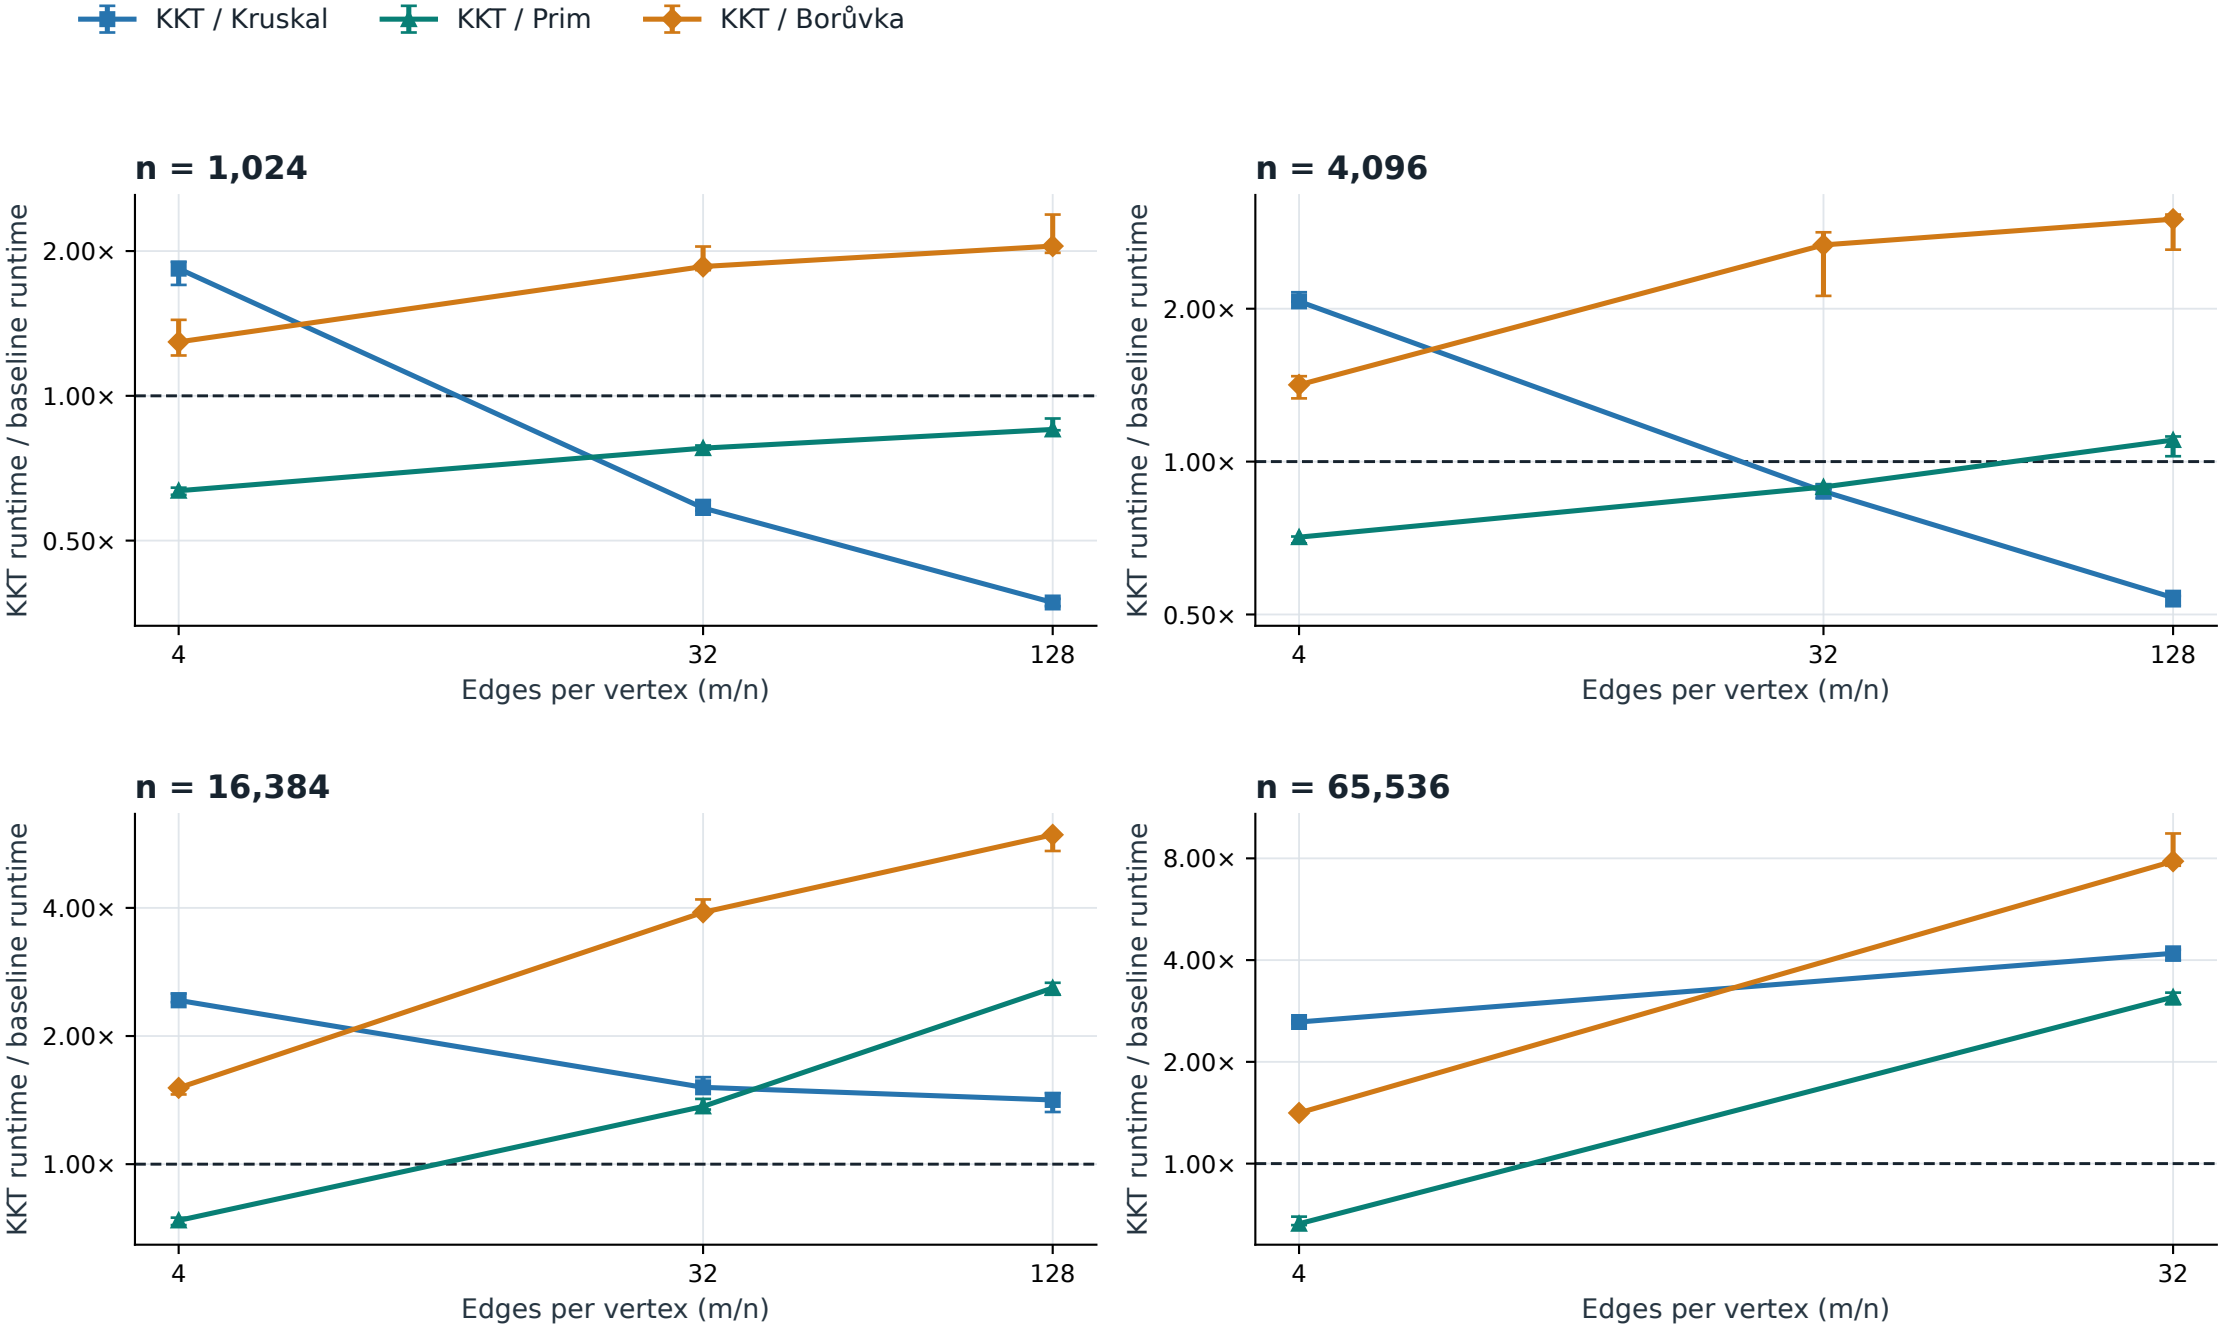
Where graph density changes the comparison



Below 1×: KKT faster. Lines only connect measured densities; they do not establish a crossover threshold. Bars span graph-level paired medians.