

Both strategies use the SAME contraction_edges counter: one input-edge incidence per production contraction call.
Arithmetic seed means; not elapsed time or individual loop visits. Verification and other work are reported separately.